

Cyngor Tref Llanwrtyd Town Council
Councillor Tim Van-Rees

Although I was born and bred in Cardiff, my wife Diana and I have lived in Llanwrtyd since 1977, and raised our daughter and two sons here at Abernant House. I was educated at Marlborough College and Cardiff University, where I qualified as a solicitor.

I was commissioned into the Monmouthshire Regiment in 1960, and saw active service in South Arabia with the 1st South Wales Borders in 1967. I continued to serve overseas until 1973, becoming a Colonel in 1992.

I am a consultant for a firm of local solicitors and work closely with the Police.

I was elected to Powys County Council in 1981, and am proud to have been Town Mayor for Llanwrtyd on two occasions, 1989/90 and 2000/01. I am a member of many committees, and work hard to support and represent the community. I was honoured to be presented with an MBE in 1989.
